Quote of the Week:

“Christ has no body on earth but ours, no hands but ours, no feet but ours. Ours are the eyes through which the compassion of Christ looks out upon the world, ours are the feet with which He goes about doing good, ours are the hands with which He blesses His people.”

-St. Teresa of Jesus (feast day = 10/15)

Prayer of the Week:

“Almighty & merciful God, to whom alone the secrets of the heart lie open, who recognize the just and make righteous the guilty, hear our prayers for your servants held in prison, and grant that through patience and hope they may find relief in their affliction and soon return unhindered to their own. Through our Lord Jesus Christ....”

-“For Those in Prison” - Roman Missal, as we celebrate the feast of St. Dismas, the Good Thief -10/13

Question of the Week:

“What must I ‘go, sell, give’ if I would ‘come, follow’ Jesus in fully committed discipleship?”

-Pastoral Patterns (Autumn ‘12)

My Dear Parishioners,

This past weekend the Diocesan Rosary Rally was held in East Durham at Our Lady of Knock Shrine. What a wonderful experience as we begin this “Year of Faith.” A number of people attended from our parish and the opportunity was given to me to give a reflection. We need to examine those sacrament which assist us on our journey to our heavenly home. Certainly the Rosary is one of them. John Paul II was very devoted to Mary and the Rosary and said that the Rosary embraced the very essence of the Gospel and many had traveled the journey to Jesus through Mary.

On October 21st Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha will be canonized and welcomed into the ranks of sainthood. How blest we are as a nation? Next weekend Prayer Cards will be available, on a limited basis, details to follow. in the back of the church. Please pray fervently on this special occasion which brings many blessings.

On the weekend of the 21st the Catechists will be teaching about Kateri Tekakwitha during our faith formation session. Any parents wishing to attend the class with their children are more that welcome to do so. First Reconciliation parents are reminded of their meeting with Father Jim Kane and my following the morning liturgy. This is in preparation of our second graders to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation. Remember during this time of harvest to thank God for all that he has done for you. Those who share in abundance and give to the poor and brokenhearted surely shall be blest in the sight of God.

Continue to enjoy your journey wherever it takes you.

In Christ and Francis

Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation/DRE
