Reflection

The shepherds who heard the joyous news from the angels on that first Christmas night and then hurried to find the infant Savior must surely have been changed by that experience. How has His coming changed my life?

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who rejoice because the Word became flesh and dwells among us! O come let us adore Him !

Attendance for the weekend of 12/17-18 was 391 (total number of registered families = 891)

Quote of the Week:

“Every year, as we start to think of Christmas, the world is bathed in a warm current of love. It is a celebration of joy and love. This is the star toward which all of us are moving.” -St. Edith Stein

Prayer of the Week:

“Oh, God, our loving Father, help us rightly to remember the birth of Jesus, that we may share in the song of the angels, the gladness of the shepherds, and the worship of the wise men. May the Christmas morning make us happy to be your children and Christmas evening bring us to our beds with grateful thoughts, forgiving and forgiven, for Jesus’ sake. Amen.”

-Robert Louis Stevenson

Question of the Week:

“In what ways does the Christ Child invite you and me to the serious call of discipleship?”

ADMINISTRATION: I would like to wish each and everyone of you a very Blessed Christmas and a Happy, Healthy New Year. As we celebrate the birth of Jesus, let us keep in mind the true meaning of Christmas. I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to the Decorating Committee for the beautiful job done in decorating our church, it is truly beautiful. I would also like to thank Diane Hoffman the Director of the Food Pantry and her helpers and Donna Hagen the Chairperson of the Giving Tree and her assistants for a wonderful job in preparing for the Christmas Giving. Thank you for your time and efforts in making the less fortunate have a brighter Christmas.

Faith Formation Ministry

My Dear Parishioners:

Today is the beginning of the most beautiful story ever told. The fact that God loved us so much that He sent his only begotten Son that we might have life eternal. I often wonder if we realize the impact of such a beautiful event. It is because of God’s plan for redemption and sending us a savior that we are allowed to enter heaven. We also celebrate Mary’s response to God when she was told by the angel Gabriel that she was to be the mother of Jesus. Her beautiful “fiat” be it done to me according to your word,” was indeed an acceptance of God’s will for her. Do we accept God’s plan or will for us? Are we willing to play our part in the story he has written for us?

Our faith formation students have been involved in learning about the advent season and of course the celebration of the event that we know as Christmas. I stopped into the practice for the Christmas pageant and you could just see the wonder in the eyes of the children as they prepared for the birth of Christ. If we could only have that same sense of awe and wonder and see these events through the eyes of a child. Perhaps we would realize most that in their innocence that have captured the true meaning of Christmas.

At Christmas time, I would like to take this opportunity to thank our faith formation staff for their gift to our families and children for all that they do to enlighten their hearts and minds with the word of God. I would like to thank those involved in putting together our Christmas pageant. What a wonderful example of passing on the living word of God.

You are reminded that classes resume January 8th for K-8. Grades 9 & 10 resume on Sunday January 22nd. Confirmation students are reminded to have their journals with them and to complete the work on the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

May all of you enjoy a blessed and happy Christmas and New Year! Find a home in your hearts for that little tiny child and in this season of giving ask yourself what are you prepared to give him?

Did you know that St. Francis of Assisi and his brothers were responsible for the tradition of the nativity scene?

In Christ and Francis,

Br. Ronald-Francis Davis, FSD,-

Pastoral Associate and Director of Faith Formation

What does Christmas really mean
By Warren H. Hedden

What does Christmas really mean?
Packages wrapped in red and green
Reindeer pulling a flying sled
Carrying a fat man dressed in red.

Colored lights on Christmas trees
New ice skates or maybe skis
Packages piled up on the floor
And mistletoe, hung over the door.

Finding places to hide the toys
The dolls for Girls and bikes for Boys
Turkey piles on plates so high
With mashed potatoes and pumpkin pie.

Office party's with lots of booze
Are these all things we should choose?
Or, should we celebrate in another way
The birth of the Savior born that day.

So what does Christmas really mean?
There are deeper meanings than what is seen
Bright lights & tinsel don't mean a thing
If we forget about the new born King.

So keep in mind on Christmas morn
This is the day that Christ was born
And every year upon this date
He is the reason we celebrate.

Why Christmas never grows old

I think Christmas never grows old,
because it is a deeply human,
as well as a divine mystery.

God, in becoming a human being,
raised humanity
to the dizzy heights of the divine,
but at the same time he made it manifest,
disclosing its mystery to people in ecstasy.

Christmas means the warmth of the family,
The amazing phenomenon of motherhood,
The continuity of life through fatherhood.

Christmas means, for the Christian and
For humanity --
besides the dawn of the redemption --
the day in which humanity rediscovers
itself, its true self,
because it is grafted into God.

~Chiara Lubich

From Christmas Joy, New City Press, 1999

Christmas means: He has come.

He has illuminated the night. He has made the night of our darkness, the night of our lack of understanding, the cruel night of our fears, And our hopelessness into Christmas, the holy night.

In the Word made flesh, God has sent his last Word, his most profound Word, his most beautiful Word into the world. And that Word means: I love you, world and humanity.

Light the candles! They have more right to be here than darkness.

~Karl Rahner From We Have Seen a Great Light: 99 sayings on Christmas, New City Press, 2007
