Quote of the Week:

“A vocation is a personal calling...Sometimes it is a silent whisper within our hearts. Other times it is a spiritual shout that jolts us out of our comfort zones. Sometimes it is a prick of compassion for others or a sense of abiding gratitude and joy. Always it is an invitation for our gifts and talents to be used in service and making God’s love visible.”

-Maryknoll Sisters

“Prayer of the Week:

“Mother Cabrini, you came to America as a migrant, sent to care for those who had journeyed far from home. We ask you to teach us to welcome newcomers to our land and to serve them with the same joy you embodied. Beg Jesus, on our behalf, to give us the same gifts of faith, hope, & love that He brought to perfection in you. We seek faith, that our trust in God will strengthen us to carry on the works of peace and justice. We seek hope, that our confidence will shine as a beacon to those who flee to our land in despair. We seek love, the perfect love which casts out all fear, that we may welcome strangers in our land with true peace and generosity of spirit. Guide us on our own journey home to Jesus, that we may dwell in his love forever, praising God.” -St. Frances Cabrini’s feast day = 11/13

“Question of the Week:

What does the generosity of the 2 widows in today’s Scriptures teach us about the generous use of our time, talent & treasure?

My Dear Parishioners,

It is almost certain now that the fall is truly with us and the winter begins to indicate she is not far behind. The beautiful hues of the summer flowers and the fall foliage are all but a memory. Yet God provides us beauty in each and every season if we just know where to find it. Do you?

We continue during this month to remember the souls of the faithful departed and all those who are now in God’s everlasting embrace. Eternal Rest Grant unto them O Lord and may perpetual light shine upon them.

As you read this column, I am away at a mini-Retreat weekend at the Columban Center in Lake Erie. Please pray that I get back before the snow flies.

Parents are reminded that we will be having our Safe environment training on November 18 for all grades. Parents are more than welcome to attend the session which begins immediately after our 10am liturgy. If you did not return your consent forms to your child’s catechist please make certain they have them to return that day. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT.

A word to the Tenth Graders in the parish. Confirmation preparation has begun. It continues on November 18th after the 10am liturgy. If you have not registered for this program and feel you desire to make your Confirmation please contact the Faith Formation Office at 756-3145, ext. 304.

Parents of Grades 5 thru 8 if you and your child plan on attending the mini retreat for these grades on Saturday, November 17th at St. John’s in Greenville, please make certain you have the necessary paperwork completed and return to me no later than Monday, November 12th.

God Bless to all including our Veterans who embodied the idea - Pro Deo Et Patria! (For God and Country)!

In Christ and Francis

~Brother Ronald Francis Davis, FSD
