Church Linens - November - Jackie Stefanik

Anyone willing to do church linens call the Rectory at 756-3145.

Quote of the Week:

“We Americans are idealists. We are willing to follow the truth solely because it is the truth. We put our main emphasis on the things which are spiritual. While we possess an unsurpassed skill in marshalling and using the material resources of the world, still the nation has not sought for wealth and power as end but as a means to a higher life.” - Pres. Calvin Coolidge, speaking to the Holy Name Society in 1924.

“Prayer of the Week:

“How wonderful is the power of your cross! How glorious beyond words is your Passion! Your passion is itself the judgment-seat of the Lord! It is your judgment upon the world, displaying the power of the Crucified! By your cross, our weakness is turned to strength, shame into glory, and death into life! You, Lord Jesus, bring all mysteries to completion, that all nations might become the kingdom of God!”

-Prayer of St. Leo the Great (feast day = 11/10)

“Question of the Week:

“As November brings us to the junction where late Fall becomes early Winter, and signs of nature’s death join with the liturgy to remind us of the reality of our own, how far do I sense myself to be from the kingdom of God? What can I plan to do to draw closer?”

-Pastoral Patterns (Autumn ‘12)

FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK:

CONGRATULATIONS and WELCOME TO OUR TEAM OF Mass SERVERS: Diya & Laya Mathai and Kathy Pacuk.

LORI NUNZIATO, our Pastoral Associate for Administration, is soon to graduate from the Kateri Institute, a lay ministry program of the diocese. In consultation with the Diocese and me, she has chosen pastoral care in our parish as her ministry. Therefore, I am pleased to appoint Lori as Associate for Pastoral Care.

Fr. Jim Kane

My Dear Parishioners,

Who would believe that so soon after Irene we would face yet another difficult weather event? We realize, at times like this, that our fate is in God’s hands and those same things that give life, ironically can cause death and destruction. It is obvious that we realize God will come to our assistance and help us. There are several reminders for all:

* Confirmation classes begin this Sunday after the 10 am liturgy. They will meet in Room 2, the music room.

* On November 18th we will be having our safe environment presentation and parents are reminded that they need to return the forms to your catechist either giving your permission for your child to attend or not. As I indicated earlier parents are more than welcome to attend the presentation, which I will be giving.

* Middle school children, that is grades 5/6 and 7/8, received notification concerning a mini retreat being held for you on November 17th. If you are interested in attending please fill out the permission forms and return to your catechist. Catechists of these grades may also attend and a number attending needs to be submitted to me for those going.

*Thanksgiving-I would ask our children to bring in food for the Thanksgiving drive. Canned goods or other non-perishables would be great. If each child brought in one or two items we would be able to make a sizeable contribution. Hope you are on board!

This year is off to a great start, that’s to the cooperation of our children and their parents, and the very hard work of our catechists.

I would ask that when forms are mailed home that they be returned in a timely manner so as to allow us the opportunity to make timely responses to those who need the information.

WE are blessed! We have a great parish and a great group of parents and children who work side by side with our catechists to bring Christ and the Gospel to our children.

In Christ and Francis

~Brother Ronald Francis Davis, FSD

"CALLED BY NAME" PROGRAM

You are well aware that there is a need for more faithful and gifted men to serve as priests in our diocese. You, your children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews deserve to have your spiritual needs met in the future. In order for that to happen, we need to call forth from our faith communities and families more men to serve as priests in the future. The upcoming "Called by Name" program is your opportunity to give voice to what men you would like as priests in the future. Please pray about this; it's critical to our future. You will be invited to submit the name of someone you believe could possibly be a fine priest on the weekend of Nov 24/25. He will then be invited to a retreat with Bishop Hubbard on January 13, 2013.
