Reflection

Jesus is the perfect steward-watching carefully over all who had been entrusted to Him by the Father and then sending them all out into the world in service. May I similarly protect and wisely use the gifts entrusted to me!

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who recognize that although each of us has our own unique gifts to share, our mission is the same - to serve others and help build God's kingdom.

Quote of the Week:

"Grim faces are not made for the merry house of Paradise." -St. Philip Neri (feastday = 5/26)

Prayer of the Week:

"Day is done, Gone the sun From the lakes, From the hills, From the sky, All is well, safely rest. God is nigh Fading light, Dims the sight. And a star Gems the sky, Gleaming bright From afar, Drawing night, Falls the night. Thanks and praise for your days, Neath the sky, As we go, This we know, God is nigh." -the words to "taps" played at Military burials (as we celebrated Armed Forces Day on 5/19 & celebrate Memorial Day on 5/28)

Question of the Week:

"What does it mean to be consecrated in the truth?" Pastoral Patterns (Summer '12)

"Dear God,

Thanks for the baby brother, but what I prayed for was a puppy." -Joyce
-Children's Letters to God

Liturgical Note:

In honor of the "flames" of the Holy Spirit we are invited to wear something red next week-end for Pentecost.

My Dear Parishioners,

The end of the school year and the coming of summer is fast approaching. Some of our major feast days are just a short time away. These include Pentecost Sunday, Corpus Christi, and the feast of the Holy Trinity. It is interesting to realize that all of these feasts are a reflection of the Heart of Christ in one aspect or another. Take time to remain close to the Heart of Christ as we celebrate and rejoice in Jesus our Risen Lord and Savior.

Summer is a time for change, relaxation, and reflection. Enjoy your family and friends and share "quality time" with one another. Make each and every day memorable.

Two RCIC children will be received into the church in the coming weeks. Joan Lipscomb has been working with the children and it is clear, first hand, that they have learned a respect, love and joy for their faith. Welcome to them and their families.

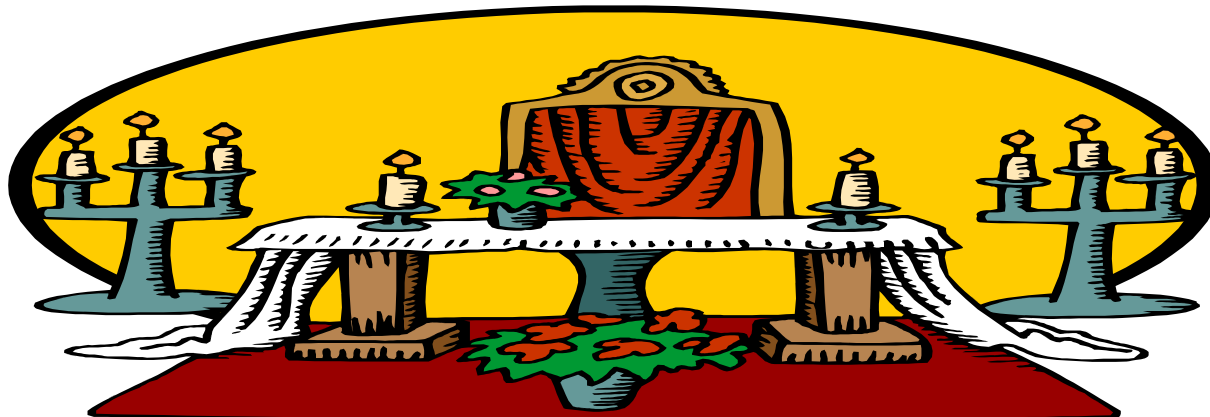

Again you are free to mail in your registrations for next year's Faith Formation program. There are blank forms in the back of the church which can be mailed along with the registration fee to me, at 21 Main Street, Ravena NY 12143. If you have any questions feel free to speak to me at 756-3145.

In Christ and St. Francis

~Brother Ronald Francis Davis, FSD
Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation/DRE

Episode Four: "Mary, the Mother of God"

In this episode, Father Barron masterfully correlates the Catholic Faith's testimony to the revelation of God in Christ with the vivid practices of reverence offered to his Mother. Father Barron will journey to the humble remains of Mary's house in Nazareth, to the ruins of the ancient city of Ephesus and to the great Marian shrines of Lourdes and Guadalupe. This episode will also feature commentary on some of the most remarkable imagery of the Mother of God created by the world's greatest artists.
