Quote of the Week: Blessing for a Special Day

"May this day be filled with God's brightest and most beautiful blessings. May all your days reveal God's wonderful plans for you." -Graymoor

"For I know the plans I have for you...to give you a future full of hope." -Jeremiah 29:11

-as we celebrate Thanksgiving Day

Prayer of the Week: Thanksgiving Table Blessing

"Lord, we thank you for the goodness of our people and for the spirit of justice that fills this nation. We thank you for the beauty and fullness of the land and the challenge of the cities [suffering from "Sandra"]. We thank you for our work and our rest, for one another, and for our homes. We thank you Lord: [personal prayers of thanksgiving]

For all that we have spoken and for all that we keep in our hearts, accept our thanksgiving this day. Keep us ever mindful of those who lack the necessities of life and make us generous in sharing all that we have. We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord.

May God bless the food and friendship that we share and fill our hearts with gratitude and generous love. Amen." -Catholic Household Blessings
Colossians 3:12-17 could be read at the beginning.

Question of the Week:

"...How do I think of "The End"—of the world, of my own life—in a way that reflects both the Christian teaching on judgment and its promise of eternal life?" -Pastoral Patterns (Autumn '12)

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Besides our family Thanksgiving traditions, we are invited to gather twice this week in prayer:

-Tuesday, 11/20—at The First Reformed Church of Bethlehem 39 Church Rd., [off Rt. 9-W] for an ecumenical Thanksgiving Service at 7:00 P.M.

-Thursday, 11/23-at St. Patrick's for Mass at 9 A.M. A monetary offering for "Sandra" victims will be taken up; canned good will be taken for our Pantry. Loaves of blessed bread will be distributed.

My Dear Parishioners,

Parents are reminded that this weekend all of the classes will be receiving the mandated diocesan safe environment training. If you do not wish your child to attend you should have returned the signed form indicating that to the faith formation office. Regardless, classes will be held for all and provision will be made for those not attending the assembly. Parents are reminded they are more than welcome to attend the assembly.

This past weekend I was on retreat at the Columban center in the Buffalo area. What a wonderful weekend! The theme of the retreat was on brotherhood and thanksgiving, most appropriate considering the time of the year. Thanksgiving is next Thursday.

In a catechetical sense, Thanksgiving is a term synonymous with Eucharist. We are reminded every time we receive the Eucharist that we should be grateful for those around us and for what we have been given. We are bound together by the greatest gift we could have ever been given, the body and blood of the Lord Jesus. It is my hope that we express our gratitude to God for the marvels he has done for us this coming week.

Our faith formation students will also be participating in the Salvation Army stocking drive. We have done this in the past and they will be asked as grades to fill a certain number of stockings for the less fortunate. If we do as well as we have done in the past we should be able to help a good number of people. Thank you to Danielle Parks for her great leadership here.

"Tis the season-yes it does not seem possible, but very shortly we will be into that time of year. Please keep Christ in you Christmas preparation.

A blessed and prayerful Thanksgiving to all!

In Christ and Francis

*A wonderful Christmas, birthday or Wedding gift.****

For the past few years we have sponsored the diocesan Peace & Justice Commission's "Work of Human Hands" sale of Third World goods.

This year we are asked to support a new adventure in our community, sponsored by Ravena's Abounding Love Christian Fellowship; perhaps you saw the story in the 11/1 issue of the Ravena Herald. The program is called the "Cross Culture Market" and offers homemade goods from poor countries. Located in Ravena's "Faith Plaza", it is open 10 A.M. - 4 P.M. on Wednesdays & 2 P.M. - 6 P.M. on Fridays & Saturdays.

A wonderful opportunity for Christmas shopping!

WE NEED.....YOUR UNWANTED ITEMS.....

During the Holiday Season while we are all cleaning out our closets, basements and garages, St. Patrick's is looking to acquire some equipment for the Church that is no longer needed by you. We are in need of a Shop Vac and a Vacuum for our Parish Center. If anyone has either of these items and no longer has use for them, we would be happy to take them off your hands. Please contact the Rectory if you have either of these items to donate. Thank you!
