Kateri Tekakwitha (Lily of the Mohawks) was a young Mohawk woman who lived in the 17th century. The story of her conversion to Christianity, her courage in the face of suffering and her extraordinary holiness is an inspiration to all Christians. On October 21, 2012, Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, will become the first Native American Saint in the United States of America. Kateri was born in 1656. When she was only 4 years old her parents and brother died of smallpox. Kateri survived the disease, but it left her face badly scarred and her eyesight impaired. Because of her poor vision, Kateri was named "Tekakwitha", which means "she who bumps into things". Kateri was taken in by her uncle who was bitterly opposed to Christianity. When she was 8 years old, Kateri's foster family, in accordance with Iroquois custom, paired her with a young boy who they expected she would marry. However, Kateri wanted to dedicate her life to God. Her uncle distrusted the settlers because of the way they treated the Indians and who were responsible for introducing smallpox and other deadly diseases into the Indian community.

When Kateri was 18 years of age, she began instructions in the Catholic Faith in secret. Her uncle finally relented and gave his consent for Kateri to become a Christian, provided that she did not try to leave the Indian village. For joining the Catholic Church, Kateri was ridiculed and scorned by villagers. She was subjected to unfair accusations and her life was threatened. Nearly two years after her baptism at the Kateri Shrine in Fonda she escaped to the Mission of St. Francis Xavier, a settlement of Christian Indians in Canada. The village in Canada was also named Caughnawaga (Kahnawake). Here she was known for her gentleness, kindness, and good humor. On Christmas Day 1677, Kateri made her first holy communion and on the Feast of the Annunciation in 1679 made a vow of perpetual virginity. She also offered herself to the Blessed Mother Mary to accept her as a daughter.

During her time in Canada, Kateri taught prayers to children and worked with the elderly and sick. She would often go to Mass both at dawn and sunset. She was known for her great devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and to the Cross of Christ. During the last years of her life, Kateri endured great suffering from a serious illness. She died on April 17th, 1680, shortly before her 24th birthday, and was buried in Kahnawake, Quebec, Canada.

Kateri's final words were. . ."Jesus — Mary — I love you"

My Dear Parishioners,

Greetings! Our Year of Faith begins in earnest with the canonization of Kateri Tekakwitha, the first native American saint. Please make certain to view our stained glass window in the back of the church highlighted and decorated for this occasion by Joe Boehlke ! Thank you Joe! Also the print in front of the altar was obtained by Lori Nunziato as well as the holy water from Kateri's spring in Fonda. Thanks so much Lori! These are things that make our parish special and the people who are here. The Kateri prayer cards are also available for those who would like them as we join in this wonderful celebration. In the Faith Formation sessions this week materials have been supplied to the catechists to develop lesson plans and to teach about her. There is a coloring book for the younger children.

Parents of the second grade class are reminded that there is a meeting immediately after the 10 am Mass today with Fr. Jim Kane and me regarding First Penance & Reconciliation. Second graders should attend their session as usual.

Also, in upcoming sessions our students will be given a presentation regarding Vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Handouts have been provided for class participation and discussion as well as ways in which this can be discussed at home.

Everyone is reminded that there is NO faith formation sessions on October 28th, due to the Spaghetti Dinner.

May you all be blessed each and every day on your journey!

Pax et bonum (Peace and Good)

In Christ and Francis

~Brother Ronald Francis Davis, FSD
Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation/DRE
