Quote of the Week:

“Of all the movements, sensations and feelings of the soul, love is the only one in which the creature can respond to the Creator and make some sort of similar return however unequal though it be. For when God loves us, all He desires is to be loved in return.”

St. Bernard (feastday = Aug. 20)

Prayer of the Week:

“Set me on fire with your sacred love and cause me to be a shining and a burning light, to illumine and enkindle all my associates with the light of your knowledge and the fire of your love.” -St. John Eudes (feast = 8/19)

Question of the Week:

“How has my following Jesus required me to reorder my associations, friendships, even family relationships—or has it?”

Aug. 25—Anointing of the Sick following 9:30 Mass

My Dear Parishioners:

Last Sunday’s readings were very powerful and cause for some thought. Where would you stand if the Lord were to call you home today? Be watchful and ready, you know not when the Son of man is coming. Blessed Pope John Paul II said that he believed at the end of his life the Lord simply would ask him what he did with the life he was given. What would your answer be? There are three words from the readings that are significant.

The first is ready. Are we ever really ready or do we have to work on that? I suspect most of us are caught up in the day to day business of living and are caught off guard.

The second is faithfulness. Have we lived our lives faithful to the end? Will we be able to say, Lord here I am. The good work you have started in me at birth has been fulfilled. Maybe the song Here I am Lord will take on new meaning for us.

The third is belief. Do we believe in God as we express in the Apostles and Nicene creeds. Are we “shopping mall Catholics” or do we believe the sum total of the church’s teachings and doctrines when we renew our baptismal promises each year during the Easter season? Are we constant in our faith and has it been an integral part of our lives?

These are just thoughts for reflection. One way to get ready is to take part in our Faith Formation Program for adults. Consider the Women’s Bible study group or the Men’s group. These are just avenues to stay in touch with the Lord on various levels. Give it a try. Nothing ventured; nothing gained.

Registration forms for Faith Formation are in the back of the church along with the calendar for K-10. This includes all sacramental programs. You are reminded that if your child is to receive a sacrament they must be part of the parish faith formation program. This may not be done at home.

Also, students attending diocesan or private catholic schools must enroll in our Confirmation program and be in attendance for sessions and field trips.

Finally, we are still interested in finding additional catechists and teacher assistants. Opening meeting for all catechists and teacher assistants will be at 7pm on Tuesday, August 26th. You will receive additional information through the mail.

Any questions at all please do not hesitate to contact me.

With every good wish
I remain~

Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation/DRE
