Reflection

In today's readings, both Isaiah and Peter hear the call of God and feel themselves unworthy. But, reassured by the Lord, both answer and follow. Do I hear the Lord asking, "Whom shall I send?" Am I prepared to answer " Here I am. Send me!"?

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who respond to God's generosity in their own lives by being generous to the poor, feeding the hungry and consoling the sorrowful, both within our parish and outward to the wider community

Prayer of the Week:

“O Sts. Cyril & Methodius, driven by love of Christ you abandoned everything to serve the Gospel. Protect the Church of God; protect the successor of St. Peter in the Roman See, the Pope; protect all bishops, priests, religious and missionaries; protect fathers, mothers, young people and children; protect the poor, the sick and suffering. May all of us be worthy laborers wherever Divine Providence has placed us. -Bl. Pope John Paul II (as we celebrate the feastday of Sts. Cyril & Methodius-2/14)

Question of the Week: “How can I, this week, in my household, workplace, classroom, circle of friends, ‘catch’ someone for the fullness of life to which Jesus invites us all?” -Pastoral Patters (Winter)

My Dear Parishioners:

Many times like Job, we feel our problems are the worst in the world and that we take on the attitude of poor me. Unfortunately, that leads to a dead end. Isn’t it true that our heavenly Father will give all of us what we need as long as we have a deep abiding faith in what we have been called to do in this life? The big Super Bowl took place this past weekend. Imagine the thousands of people viewing the event. If we could only get that many people to fill our churches and give back to God what is due to him. Wouldn’t that be a Super Bowl event?

The winter weather in the northeast has certainly taken on a different flavor. In three short days we went from zero to fifty degrees. It seems as if we always have to have something to do such as; Valentines day, or a Saint Patrick’s day celebrations. Yet how many say Lent begins this week and it is time to do some serious thinking about my relationship with the Lord. It is always a matter of priorities and what you see as important in your life. We only have one life and someday we will be asked to account for the life we have been given and what we did with it. Remember the only way to become rich is to spend yourself doing good for others. So how will you spend yourself during this Lenten season?

Our second grade parents are reminded that a parent meeting will be held for the parents of all those making their First Communion this spring. It will be held on March 3rd, following the 10 am liturgy. This is a mandatory meeting. Second graders attend class as usual this day. The First communion retreat will be held on March 16th beginning at noon and ending at the 4 pm Mass with Father Jim Kane doing a vessels and vestment liturgy . At least one parent is asked to attend the retreat.

The Confirmation class is meeting this weekend after the 10 am liturgy. Prayer Partners will be needed for our Confirmation candidates and the sign up will go out shortly. Once again our parish will be celebrating the sacrament of Confirmation on May 20th at 6:30pm at the Cathedral.

In Christ and St. Francis~

~Brother Ronald Francis Davis, FSD

Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation/DRE
