Quote of the Week:

“In God there can be no selfishness, because the three selves of God are three subsistent relations of selflessness, overflowing and super abounding in joy in the perfection of their gift of their one life to one another.” -Thomas Merton (on this Trinity Sun.)

Prayer of the Week:

“O Lord & master of my life, give me not the spirit of sloth, idle curiosity, and meddling, lust for power & idle talk. But grant unto me, thy servant, a spirit of chastity & integrity, humility, patience & love.

Yea, O Lord, & king, grant me to see mine own faults and not to judge my brother or sister. For blessed art thou unto the ages of ages. Amen.”

-St. Ephrem the Syrian (feast day = June 9)

Question of the Week:

“How should our baptism in the name of the Most Holy Trinity, together with Jesus’ ‘great commission’ to make disciples and teach all he has commanded, shape the way we interact with those who form the several communities (i.e., home, work, school, social circle) within which we function?”

Pastoral Patterns (Summer ‘12)

“Dear God, How did you know you were God?”

-Charlene –Children’s Letters to God

FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK:

“Thank you” to Joan Lipscomb & all who prepared our 2 youngsters for the R.C.I.C. (Rites of Christian Initiation for Children) last Sat:

My Dear Parishioners,

God is all around us! This past weekend we celebrated and welcomed into the Church 2 R.C.I.C. children, new Baptisms, and our final First Communion. What blessings on us God bestows. It has been a wonderful year in so many ways. It makes us aware of God’s unending love and the care He has for us by sending His Holy Spirit to awaken in us an awareness of His deep abiding presence. We quickly come to realize that it is through God the author of life that all blessings flow!

Also, there are “Working Together” brochures in the back of the church. These are available from the diocese. They make you aware of the procedures to follow in the cases of abuse, or suspected abuse of children. If you are not familiar with the program you should review one of the brochures. This pamphlet was mailed out to all Faith Formation households and will be again, prior to the beginning of the new school year in September. Contact information is provided and if you have any individual questions that maybe addressed by me: please do not hesitate to contact me.

Just a reminder if you received your registration form for Faith Formation for September, it is because you are not yet registered for next year. Please complete the form and mail it back with the required fee so that we can begin our planning phase for textbooks and supplies. Your cooperation is most appreciated in this area.

May you be blessed this summer with true relaxation and the enjoyment of family and friends.

In Christ and Francis,

~Brother Ronald Francis Davis, FSD

Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTORAL ASSOCIATE FOR ADMINISTRATION/CEMETERY MANAGER:

I would like to take this opportunity to give a Special “Thanks” to Ron Racine for his 33+ years of service. Ron has chosen to retire at the end of the month, so we will be celebrating his retirement after Mass on Sunday, July 1st.

I would also like to take this opportunity to apologize for the condition of the old part of the cemetery for Memorial Day weekend. Unfortunately, there was a family emergency that prevented the lawn from being completely mowed for the holiday. Thank you for your understanding and patience with this matter. We are also working on the altar area, near the shed, and ask for your patience during this time. Thank you.
