Reflection

Today's reading from Revelation offers a vision of the City of God, the new Jerusalem. The bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who, assist others in deepening their relationship with Christ through evangelization, catechesis and ongoing formation.

Attendance for the weekend of April 27/28 was 290 (total number of registered families= 829.)

2nd COLLECTION for today will be for FUEL & HEAT

Quote of the Week:

“...Church history, ancient & modern, and our personal histories teach that Jesus’ peace does not promise a pain-free life. Yet for all the Church’s brokenness across history, and despite ours now, the community of disciples is still the place of encounter with the living triune God.” -Pastoral Patterns (Spring ‘13)

Prayer of the Week:

“One Hail Mary a Day Club”

This club has no meetings, no dues. Members just commit to pray just one “Hail Mary” daily for Vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, lay ministries. -A great practice to begin in the month of May, traditionally devoted to Mary

Question of the Week:

“In what situation or relationship of my life do I need to set aside my own preferences in order to permit Christ’s love to unite me more deeply with others?” -Pastoral Patterns (Spring ‘13)

From the Pastor’s Desk:

We have received 53 pledges in the amount of $21,085.00. We will need the assistance of ALL in our parish to meet our goal/assessment for this year’s Bishop’s Appeal. Envelopes are in the pews in church. 1% of income is suggested, but whatever you are able to contribute is gratefully received., Remember $700 a month comes to the parish from the Diocese, as a small compensation to the parish for my commitment as diocesan ecumenical & interfaith Director. Fr. Jim Kane

My Dear Parishioners,
Confirmation at the cathedral last Monday evening was beautiful! Congratulations to all who were confirmed and we express our gratitude to the confirmation team, the parents, the sponsors and anyone connected to the formation of our young people for the reception of the sacrament. You are reminded that confirmation certificates will be given out at the reception following the May Crowning which is at the 10am Liturgy next week, May 12th. This week we complete our First Communions. There are First Communions at every Liturgy, with the group Communion on Sunday at the 10am Mass. All First communion Children are reminded that are to wear their first communion apparel for the May Crowning next week at the 10am Liturgy. First Communion certificates and gifts will be given out after Mass in the parish center. On May 11th the RCIC children, under the direction of Joan Lipscomb, will be welcomed into the sacramental life of the church.

You are reminded that our May Crowning will be at the 10am Liturgy on May 12th. All faith formation students are required to attend. This is the last session of faith formation for the catechetical year 2012-13. All Parishioners are reminded to bring in fresh flowers to place in front of our Blessed Mother. These will be brought up and placed in the vases at Offer-tory time.

This is also an opportunity for me to express gratitude to the Faith Formation Catechists for all their hard work. Trust me, you have a wonderful group of dedicated people bringing your children closer to the Lord ! THANK YOU !!!! We will recognize our catechists at the gathering in the parish center following the May Crowning.

~ Brother Ronald Francis Davis, FSD
Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation/DRE

Catholicism: Take advantage of Fr. Jim Kane’s “Catholicism” presentation, a documentary series by Rev. Fr. Robert Barron, which will continue this Easter season, on Thursday evenings, 7pm in Room 5. This week’s video is; “The Fire of His Love; Prayer in the Life of the Spirit.. We are centering on the “Year of Faith”, initiated by Pope Benedict XVI. Hope you can make it.
