Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus says that God is glorified when a disciple, grafted in Christ, produces abundantly and bears much fruit. The disciple must then be a good steward of that abundance.

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who share their gift of hospitality with others, especially through ministries such as greeters, ushers and /or a welcome committee.

Attendance for the weekend of 4/28-29 was 322 (total number of registered families= 829.)

Quote of the Week:

“Faith and fear can’t live in the same place. It’s eventually got to be one or the other. The Lord has put me here and it’s up to me to go where He wants in the way He wants.”

-Albany native/Military Bishop Joseph Estabrook, replying to a doctor’s inquiry on how he could be so positive after receiving his pancreatic cancer diagnosis –from Salute (Spring 2012)

Question of the Week:

“In the coming week, what opportunities will you have to show forth the ‘fruits’ that Jesus expects us to bear: kindness, goodness, and patience?” -Pastoral Patterns (Summer ‘12)

“Dear God, Instead of letting people die and having to make new ones why don’t you just keep the ones you got?” -Johnny

Episode Two: "Happy are We - The Teachings of Jesus"

The revelation of Jesus as God is accompanied by a stunning invitation to a unique new way of life. Father Robert Barron will journey from the magnificent cathedral of Amiens in France to the stalwart cities of Krakow and Warsaw in Poland and to the cosmopolitan center of New York. He will use these sites to show how the Catholic Church is a living culture which gives witness to the inviolable dignity of the human person. This episode will also present reflections on some of the greatest examples of Christian art with visits to the Colmar Museum in Germany and the galleries of The Hermitage in St. Petersburg.
