Quotes of the Week:

“As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.” -President John F. Kennedy

(whose 50th anniversary of assassination is 11/22)

“...that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that the government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.” -President Abraham Lincoln

(150th anniversary of the Gettysburg Address is 11/19)

Question of the Week:

“How do I picture the end of the world? What is a practical way I can prepare now for its coming and for my own personal meeting with the Lord Jesus?”

-Pastoral Patterns (Autumn 2013)

Prayer of the Week: FOR VOCATIONS

“Creator God, life is your gift to me. Through Baptism, you invite me to share the gift of my life in service to others. Be with me as I choose each day to show Your presence in our world. Give me the courage and generosity to respond to Your love, to Your call. I pray especially for those who serve you as priests, brothers, sisters, deacons and lay ministers. Keep them close to you. Open the minds and hearts of other men and women that they may accept Your challenge to build the Kingdom.” -Sr. Roseann Kasayka, OSF

-on this “Called by Name II” Sunday

Anointing of the Sick following the 10:00 Mass

My Dear Parishioners:

The cold this past week was a certain reminder that we will be having many days like that soon. Winter is a time when much of the earthly vegetation falls asleep to re-coup for the next spring season. Many times our lives parallel the earthly cycles. The human condition has its highs and lows and our spiritual life certainly falls into that pattern many times.

Think of what the coming of winter signals. We are nearing the end of the church calendar with the Feast of Christ the King. Interesting that advent arrives at the time when we most need to see a season of hope. Hope, Light, peace, darkness are all images of the advent season.

The second grade will be doing the Jesse Tree this year and explaining its meaning along the way. Advent of course is preparation for the Christmas season. Christmas is a wonderful time of the year-A time for welcoming the new born king and celebrating with family and friends and giving to the less fortunate. The church is decorated and we rejoice that the Lord has come as prophets foretold. Interesting to note as well, that the days become longer following Christmas. Also remember:

Fr. Jim Kane will present I Corinthians at a combined bible study with both men and woman on December 3rd , 10th , and 17th at 11:00 a.m. For these three sessions we will change the normal meeting time from 1:00 p.m. to 11:00 a.m.

On November 24th, the Confirmation Candidates will be serving in various ministries at our 10:00 a.m. liturgy.

On December 7th at 11:00 a.m., our First Penance & Reconciliation will take place here at St. Patrick’s.

We will be decorating for our Christmas Season on Monday, December 23rd at 10:30 a.m. We are in need of assistance, so anyone interested in helping is encouraged to come. More details to follow.

In Christ and Francis,

~Brother Ronald-Francis Davis, FSD

Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation/DRE
