Quote of the Week:

"There is a sacredness in tears. They are not the mark of weakness, but of power. They speak more eloquently than 10,000 tongues. They are messengers of overwhelming grief...and unspeakable love." -Washington Irving, as we commemorate All Souls on 11/2

Prayer of the Week: A Cherokee Blessing

"May the warm winds of heaven blow softly upon your house. May the Great Spirit bless all who enter there. May your moccasins make happy tracks in many snows. And may the rainbow always touch your shoulder." -as we celebrate the canonization of Native American, Kateri Tekakwitha

Question of the Week:

"As we reflect on Jesus giving Bartimaeus both sight & insight, we ask ourselves: what are the 'cloaks' that weigh us down and that need to be 'cast aside,' if we are to 'spring up' and hasten to Jesus when He calls?"

-Pastoral Patterns (Autumn '12)

"Dear God, On Halloween I am going to wear a devil's costume. Is that all right with you?" -Marnie

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

It is an ancient custom to have Masses offered for the eternal peace of deceased loved ones. Our Mass Intentions book for 2013 will open on Friday, November 2nd (office hours on Fri. are 9-Noon).

Beginning this week, for the convenience of our Eucharistic Ministers who bring holy communion to the homebound, Mass on Fridays will now be at 9:00, rather than 7 A.M. and the 7 A.M. Mass on Wednesdays will be dropped. On Mondays & Wednesdays daily Mass participants are welcome to the 8 A.M. Mass at St. Mary's, 80 Mansion St., Coxsackie.

There will be a training session for new LECTORS, those who proclaim the Word of the Lord at Mass, after 7 P.M. Mass on All Saints, 11/1.

CONGRATULATIONS to Bro. Robert Francis Matthews, featured in The Evangelist and the Ravena Herald and to Mary Tiberia, recipient of the Senior Issues Forum "Senior Lifetime Award."

~Fr. Jim Kane

My Dear Parishioners,

Last weekend was a wonderful opportunity for those of us in the Diocese of Albany to celebrate the canonizations of 2 saints named from New York State, and one within our own diocese. Everything looked so beautiful - the vestibule of the church, the stained glass window, and the print in front of the altar. The special liturgy and the blessing with the water from the Fonda spring. This was a great opportunity also for our kids to experience their faith in action. We all need more experiences like this and thanks to everyone who made it possible.

Today there is no class because of the Spaghetti supper. This was supposed to be the day that we started talking about the importance of vocations in our classes and you the parents at home. Handouts were given to every class from the diocese as a guide. I hope that you find them useful. This will be an ongoing topic throughout the year. It is a very important diocesan initiative.

Please remember our safe environment presentation for our kids on November 18th. A letter and form for you to return to agree to your child's participation must be returned by that date. The letter and form has been sent to families this past week. Any questions please contact me at 756-3145, Parents are also welcome to attend the presentation which will be held in the gathering area of the parish center.

Confirmation youth are reminded that sessions begin on November 4th following the 10 am liturgy. The first session is on the sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation.) There is no text required. Candidates will be given a binder with handouts for each session. If there is anyone not registered for the Confirmation program who would like to be, please contact the faith formation office at 756-3145. Candidates are reminded to bring signed contracts with them on Nov. 4th.

Once again, thank you for being the wonderful parish family that you are. Your spirit of cooperation and support is always appreciated.

May God Bless you and yours in the days ahead!

In Christ and Francis

~Brother Ronald Francis Davis, FSD

Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation/DRE
