Quote of the Week:

“Community is a fellowship of people who do not hide their joys & sorrows but make them visible to each other in a gesture of hope. Life is full of gains & losses, joys & sorrows, ups & downs, — but we do not have to live it alone. Together we can celebrate the truth that the wounds of our individual lives, which seem intolerable when lived alone, become sources of healing when we live them as part of a fellowship of mutual care.”

-Rev. Fr. Henri J.M. Nouwen

Prayer of the Week: Prayer for Compassion

“God, our Father, make me an instrument of help and hope for the suffering...where there has been ignorance, let me provide understanding. Where there has been hurt, let me be an agent of forgiveness. Where there has been bitterness and loathing, let me open the door to compassion and love. Where there has been grief, loneliness, and despair, let me bring serenity, consolation & hope.” -Guest House

Question of the Week:

“Where in my life might the Risen Jesus be standing on the shore, unrecognized, challenging me to ‘cast my net’ once more, i.e., to trust in Jesus and keep on trying?” -Pastoral Patterns (Spring ‘13)

From the Pastor’s Desk:

A P.S. to my P.S. of Easter’s bulletin: the old chairs for the priest & deacon need more money to repair than I am willing to expend at this time.

Fr. Jim Kane

A Note from the Cemetery Manager:

Our Cemetery has now reopened for the season. There is a dumpster down in the cemetery for the use of discarding old flower arrangements from the graves. It is not to be used for the disposal of personal property or trash. Let us remember our cemetery is a sacred place, a place where visitors come to remember, pray for, and memorialize with their loved ones. I appreciate your assistance in helping me keep our cemetery safe and beautiful.

My Dear Parishioners,

Just a few reminders:

- *Support letters may be written for Confirmation Candidates through April 20th. Place in collection basket. Confirmandi will get them at rehearsal on 4/21.
- *Confirmation rehearsal on 4/21 following the 10am Liturgy, in church
- *Confirmation is April 22nd at 6:30 pm at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. All who are involved in any ministry for Confirmation are asked to be there by 5:45 pm. It is most important to be prompt.
- *The ninth grade class in meeting today then again on May 5.
- *Because of the Festival of Baskets there will be no Classes on April 28th.
- *May Crowning and an end of the year celebration will be May 12th at the 10am Liturgy. Reception and recognitions will be handed out in the parish center following the May Crowning and closing the catechetical year for our students and teachers. All sacramental certificates and gifts will be given out by our pastor, Father Jim Kane.

Just a note: Christ in the gospels speaks the phrase, “Peace be with you,” more than any other phrase found in the sacred scripture. Extend genuine peace to your family, your friends, your co-workers and your neighbors. Truly Celebrate the Resurrection Feast. Rejoice in the empty tomb and may you recognize him in the breaking of the bread each and every time you participate in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Find true beauty and peace no matter where the Lord leads you for it is our job to bring it along with us.

Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation/DRE
