Quote of the Week:

“Be zealous, then, in the observance of one Eucharist. For there is one Flesh of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and one Chalice that brings union in His Blood,. There is one altar, as there is one bishop with the priests & deacons, who are my fellow workers. And so, whatever you do, let it be done in the name of the Lord.”

-St. Ignatius of Antioch (2nd century), as we celebrate the feast of the Body & Blood of Christ

Prayer of the Week: “Litany of the Lost”

“Response = Saint Anthony, pray for us.

For those of us who have lost...

Our health...our peace of mind...our housing... our financial security...a loved one...our dreams...our talents...our initial zeal...our sobriety...our faith...our self-respect...our perspective...our innocence...our independence...peace within our families...civil peace...our trust in others...our virtue...our home... =add your own particular loss...”

=as we celebrate the feast of St. Anthony - 6/13

Question of the Week:

“In a world acutely conscious of the effects of diet & nutrition on physical health, in what practical ways will our receiving of Christ’s Body & Blood as spiritual nourishment this Sunday affect our spiritual health, i.e., our personal relationship with Christ, our relationships with those with whom we live, work, socialize?”

Pastoral Patterns (Summer ‘12)

FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK:

As we read our Deacon’s message of page 5, we wish him Godspeed in his ministry. It was our privilege to have him with us for his 1st year of ordination as a Deacon. In your name, I thank him for his ministry with us. There will an opportunity to offer personal thanks after all the Masses next weekend, with “hospitality” in the Parish Hall.

~Father Jim Kane

On this feast of the Body & Blood of Christ:

Litany of the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar

Word made flesh and living among us,
-Christ, have mercy on us

Pure and acceptable sacrifice,
Hidden manna from above,
Living bread that came down from heaven,
Bread of life for a hungry world,
Chalice of blessing,
Precious blood that washes away our sins,
Memorial of God’s undying love,
Food that lasts for eternal life,
Mystery of faith,
Medicine of immortality,
Food of God’s chosen,
Perpetual presence in our tabernacles,
Viaticum of those who die in the Lord,
Pledge of future glory,

Lord hear our prayer

Deacons are called to serve. The very word “deacon” is taken from the Greek word diakonia, meaning service. A deacon’s service at the altar represents the good works of all members of the parish and is offered alongside the other gifts brought to the table. It has been my distinct pleasure and honor to have represented your good works this past year at St. Patrick’s.

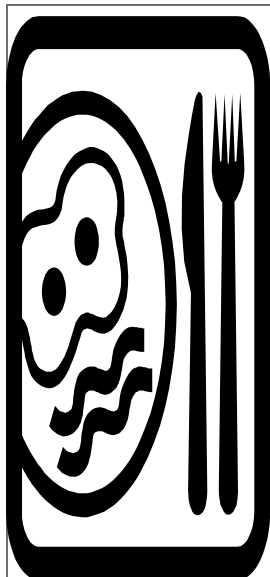

My Ministry at St. Patrick’s has been a ministry that has focused primarily on the liturgical component of diaconate service. I have also been assigned this past year to perform the community service portion of my ministry to the community of St. Francis of Assisi in Albany (St. Francis is a recently merged community of St. John/St. Ann and St. James).

There have been many challenges trying to serve two communities the best that I can. My assignment has been unique indeed, but serving two communities and being visible in only one, has made it difficult for me to meet the needs of the St. Francis community. After much prayer, and consultation, I have asked Bishop Hubbard and he has approved for me to focus my ministry completely in one parish setting, St. Francis of Assisi.

I have been very impressed this past year with the activity and service provided by you the Parishioners of St. Patrick’s. You are truly living the mission of Co-Workers in the Vineyard. I am grateful to Fr. Jim Kane for his guidance and support in my first year of ministry and to the staff of St. Patrick’s Parish. I am especially grateful to Mrs. Joan Lipscomb whose strong heart and loving manner guides and supports this wonderful community as she has for many years. Joan has most certainly has been an example of ministry for me. I also would like to thank John Schmitt and everyone in music ministry for their beautiful contributions to the Sacred Liturgy.

I ask only for your prayers as I begin this new ministry assignment and I will always keep the people of St. Patrick’s close to my heart. My daughter, Mairin, and I will miss you, but we promise not to be total strangers. May God continue to bless all of you.
