Bulletin Reflection

Both widows in today's readings gave all they had to the work of the Lord, one using all her remaining food to feed Elijah and the other offering her two copper coins to the temple treasure. Good stewards give all that is asked and trust God to be faithful to His promises.

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who give without hesitation—not from their surplus—but from their substance.

Thank You.

Church Linens November—Danielle Parks
Anyone willing to do "The Holy Wash" church linens please call the Rectory at 756-3145

During the month of November we are asking for everyone's cooperation in the fall cleanup of our cemetery. In anticipation of the winter months quickly approaching, we are asking for your help. This fall we are asking that all lawn and flower ornaments that you would like to keep for next year be removed and stored in your possession. The Cemetery Board has deemed it necessary to begin enforcing the rules and regulations of our cemetery that you can refer to on our website www.tcosp.org. If there are any arrangements that are left and the cemetery board feels that they have become faded or unsightly, or hinder the upkeep of the graves they will be discarded. We will notify you in the spring when arrangements can be placed on the grave sites and ask that you please follow the rules and regulations that are referred to in our rules and regulations.

Thank You

A special thank you to Don Gager, Diane Hoffman, Penny Gager, Renee Perrotte, Brittney Krajewski, Christine Hagen, Jillian Hagen, Robert Hagen, Clayton Sumner, and Joann Powell for all their assistance. Marianne McCool and Joan Thompson thank you for another successful Bake Sale. Many thanks to those ladies who delivered to the Home Bound and to those who baked. Without all of you this could not have been successful.

Deacon Al's Corner

Weekday Masses—Fr. Scott will celebrate Mass on Mondays and Tuesdays at 8:00 am at St. Mary's, and at 9:00 am on Wednesdays and Thursdays at St. Patrick's. In the event a funeral is scheduled for one of those weekdays, the morning Mass will be replaced by the funeral liturgy. This schedule will start on Monday, November 9th.

Communion Services—Since Fr. Scott will be celebrating Mass Monday through Thursday, there will no longer be a need to have Communion Services. Effective November 9th, Communion Services will be discontinued; however, Community Prayer Services in both St. Mary's and St. Patrick's are encouraged.

Reconciliation —will be available on Tuesday evenings at 5:30 pm on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays at St. Mary's and on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays at St. Patrick's.

Annual Christmas Open House December 6th—will be held in Maria Hall, St. Mary's.

Electronic Giving—with "Thanks" to Mark Maraglio, Fr. Scott has given his approval to go ahead and implement electronic giving in both Parishes.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is time for me to say goodbye; and to be moving on to another assignment. While it always difficult to say "Goodbye to my new friends," I am very happy to be leaving you with the leadership of your new Shepherd, Fr. Scott VanDerveer. There will be a lot of activity in the next several months. Fr. Scott will have an Installation Mass; and you will be celebrating Thanksgiving and before long Christmas. These are exciting times!!

Please give Fr. Scott your full support as he gets to know all of you, and as he learns his way around St. Mary's in Cocksackie and St. Patrick's in Ravenna.

Thank you once again for all your support to me.

As I go on my way I pray in the words of Our Lord Jesus that:

"You love one another as I have loved you."

May God bless us all with the Love, Joy and Peace of the Incarnation, and with the Hope of the Resurrection.

Faith Formation

Dear Parishioners:

We are well into our Faith Formation program for the year but if you have not registered your child and would like to still do so you may contact me and I will assist you in the registration process.

We have now completed our Safe Environment Training for the year. We have had it over the last two weekends, if you child was absent for both weekends I would ask you to contact me so that I may go through the presentation with them with the handouts that have been provided. I would like to extend my gratitude to the catechists and families for their patience in this process.

We are still trying to recruit some assistance with our Faith Formation program if you would like to join this wonderful ministry as either a substitute catechists, catechist aide or a parents willing to volunteer, please feel free to contact me.

God Bless,

Lori Nunziato

Pastoral Care

Our Pastoral Care program is currently looking for more volunteers: If you are looking for a rewarding ministry, love to spend time with people, and are willing to bring the body of Christ to those that are unable to physically be present at church-this ministry is for you! If this sounds like something that you would be interested in, please feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience.

God Bless,

Lori Nunziato
